GPA Seeks Help for Room in Old Depot

A current project of the Grayling Promotional Association is the renovation of an upstairs room in the Depot, home of the Crawford County Historical Museum. When finished, the room will represent the fashions of women of the early 1900's.

The room is now in the process of being scraped, painted and wallpapered. After that, the furnishings will be added, such as an old sewing machine and dress form. Many items are still needed. If you have period chairs, parasols, a folding screen, or small items such as pin cushions, hat pins, mirrors, quill pens, lamps, dresser accessories, or small tables, the Grayling Promotional Association would like to include them in the room. GPA would be happy to credit the donor and such items could be used on a lending basis.

Please look in your attic, barn, or storage building for items that could be donated or borrowed. Then contact any GPA member, or call D.J. Taylor at 348-6171.

Further Steps Taken To Solve City Curbside Garbage Problems

The City of Grayling is warning city residents that appropriate legal action will be taken against persons refusing to comply with garbage pick-up rules. The biggest problem facing the city is garbage placed at curbside at the wrong times. Refuse should be placed at curbside no earlier than Sunday evening and no later than 8 a.m. Monday. Leaves and trimmings should be placed in bags. Brush and tree limbs should be cut to manageable lengths and placed at curbside separate from the trash.

Infractions of garbage pick-up rules will be handled by city police and the city attorney.

Communication Misunderstanding Blamed in Guard's Death

A misunderstanding between a pilot and jumpmaster during a heli-casting exercise was the probable cause of an accident that injured six guards and led to the drowning of another, a military investigation reported.

An investigation by LTC Howard Becker, Jr., indicated the jumpmaster did not understand the pilot's message and gave the order for the men to jump, even though the helicopter's speed and altitude had exceeded normal limits for the exercise.

The heli-casting exercises took place at Howes Lake, west of Grayling, on Saturday morning, August 2nd. The first jump was made by Company Commander CPT John Koehler, who felt the altitude was too high and speed too fast and ordered the succeeding flights to reduce altitude and speed. The maximum altitude normally used for the exercises is 20 feet above the water and maximum speed is 20 knots.

Six flights each with eight men jumping from a helicopter went successfully without incident. On the seventh flight, a guard was having some trouble in the water and his jumping partner (a buddy system was used) signalled for a safety boat to assist. Two divers aboard the safety boat immediately entered the water to help the guard.

While the guard was receiving assistance in the water, flight number 8 approached the lake. The Company Commander signalled to abort flight number 8. The signal was passed on to the pilot who understood it. He passed on to the jumpmaster the message "We have a wave off," repeating it three times. The pilot then said "We are going around."

The pilot continued the flight over the lake but gradually increased speed and altitude.

The jumpmaster did not interpret the remark "We have a wave off," to mean no more jumping. As the flight continued over the lake, he gave the orders to move to ready positions along side of the aircraft, and to jump. The men jumped in pairs and the first two pairs went down. Just before the third pair jumped, the jumpmaster felt the aircraft gain altitude and heard the pilot shout "No, No, No." He did not realize what was going on in time to stop the third pair but he reached out the right side of the helicopter and managed to stop the guard from jumping. The jumpmaster went to the left side but the guard had already jumped.

Guards in rescue boats and those on shore went out to help the jumpers. At this point, there was one injured guard in the water from flight number 7 and seven guards from flight number 8.

Five guards received minor injuries. SSG Robert Lagana received spinal injuries and SP4 Georgios Stergiadis received a minor fracture to the ribs and a bruised right kidney. SP4 Thomas Rohroff, 23, from Clarkston, died from drowning. An autopsy showed both lungs collapsed, possibly from hitting the water on his back.

While Medivac helicopters were called to the scene, guards with suspected back or neck injuries were placed on back boards. The report said a head count was made about this time, but identification was difficult because injured guards had shirts with i.d. tags cut off. A rainstorm added to the confusion and apparently an injured guard resembling Rohroff was mistaken for him.

At first it was believed that Rohroff was among the first guards taken on the Medivac helicopter. It wasn't until hours later at 6 p.m. that Rohroff was determined missing.

A search was started on land and water and the sheriff department was called. Sheriff divers searched Howes Lake Saturday evening before darkness but failed to find anything. The body was discovered about 11:30 a.m. Sunday by Sheriff divers.

The investigation report concluded that reasonable safety precautions were taken during the exercise and the accident occurred as a result of miscommunications.

Becker recommended that a standard operating procedure for the exercise be established and communication among ground controllers, pilots, and jumpmasters include voice and hand signals to avoid any miscommunication.

He also recommended only experienced pilots are to be used on these exercises and all flights maintain the speed and altitude for jumping along the whole pass even when a flight is aborted.

No-Kill Court Case Put on Hold Until More Information Filed

More information about the legal filing date for a lawsuit against no-kill on the mainstream AuSable will have to be supplied by the state before 46th Circuit Court Judge Alton T. Davis will rule on the state's latest request in the court battle.

In a hearing Monday, August 18, at the Crawford County courthouse, the state asked Judge Davis to throw out the lawsuit against no-kill for several reasons.

The state's main argument contended the plaintiffs in the case (Connie Binsfeld, Ralph Ostling, Harrison Goodhue, Peter Stephan, Dwight Hassan, Lacey Stephan, Jr., Clarence LaMotte, the City of Grayling, the Committee To Oppose Catch and Release, and the AuSable River Systems Property Owners Association) had no legal or factual grounds to base their lawsuit against the Department of Natural Resources, Natural Resources Commission, Ronald Skoog, and John Scott.

Another issue raised by the state was the legal filing date for the lawsuit. The state contends the plaintiffs had 21 days after the NRC adopted the no-kill rule to file their lawsuit. The opposition to the no-kill rule contends the date for filing started when the DNR Director issued an order with the new no-kill rule in it.

Judge Davis requested the state to submit a brief with more information about the legal filing date. He gave the state 21 days from August 18 to submit the brief. The plaintiffs then have 10 days to respond to the brief filed by the state.

After all this information is filed, the Judge will review the arguments presented and issue a decision. If he decides the lawsuit has legal grounds to stand on and it was filed in a timely manner, he can schedule a full trial for the case.

Or he can rule in favor of the state's argument and throw out the case. And he may also rule in favor of a motion made by the opposition and grant a permanent injunction against the no-kill rule.

Kevin Smith, from the attorney general's office, said both he and attorney Ron Wilson for the plaintiffs had sufficient opportunity during the Monday hearing to present their arguments.

"The Judge allowed us all the time we needed even though it wrecked his court schedule for the day," said Smith. "We were scheduled for an hour and we went from 11:15 a.m. to well past 3 p.m. with a few interruptions."

Asked about claims that the state is trying to drag out the case to wear down the resources of the opposition, Smith said the state would just as soon have the trial over as quick as possible.

"The longer the trial goes on, the longer the injunction stays in place," he said. "I think the state has really been straight forward in respect to motions and appearances and fair about the entire case. We really could have run up a bill if we wanted to. We haven't had any discovery, disposition, or other items that really use up attorney time."

Pete Stephan said the no-kill opposition stands a better chance of winning than the state does at this point.

"The only real new thing the state presented Monday was the challenge to the filing time," he said.

State and Local Police Called To Camp Grayling To Halt Stabbings, Fights

About 20 police officers from the Crawford County Sheriff Dept., Grayling City Police, and Michigan State Police Posts in Gaylord and Kalkaska were called to Camp Grayling to break up several fights involving mostly Michigan National Guardsmen.

Guardsman James Austin, 21, of Detroit, was arraigned in 83rd District Court and charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than murder. He is being held on $30,000 cash bond in connection with the stabbing of Frederick Kuntz, 21, of Dowagiac.

Kuntz was taken to Mercy Hospital and was listed in good condition there with no serious internal damage from the stabbing.

Also arrested during the melee at Camp Grayling was Matthew Sanford, 19, from Bangor. He was charged with obstructing police while they were investigating Thursday night. He was released on $100 bond.

Police were called to the Camp about 11:30 p.m. when a fight broke out at a mess hall. All available sheriff and city police were called to the scene and state police also sent officers. Police were at the Camp until after 3 a.m. quieting the area with military police. Several minor stabbings, assaults, and larcenies were handled by the police and are being investigated.

News reports in a daily newspaper called the Camp Grayling incident a "near-riot" involving nearly 150 guards. James Kellogg, from the military public affairs office in Lansing, said many of the news reports he heard were blown out of proportion. He said he has heard so many rumors and so much speculation about what happened that he prefers to wait until a report from the Provost Marshall is released until he comments on the Thursday night events. The report is expected later this week.

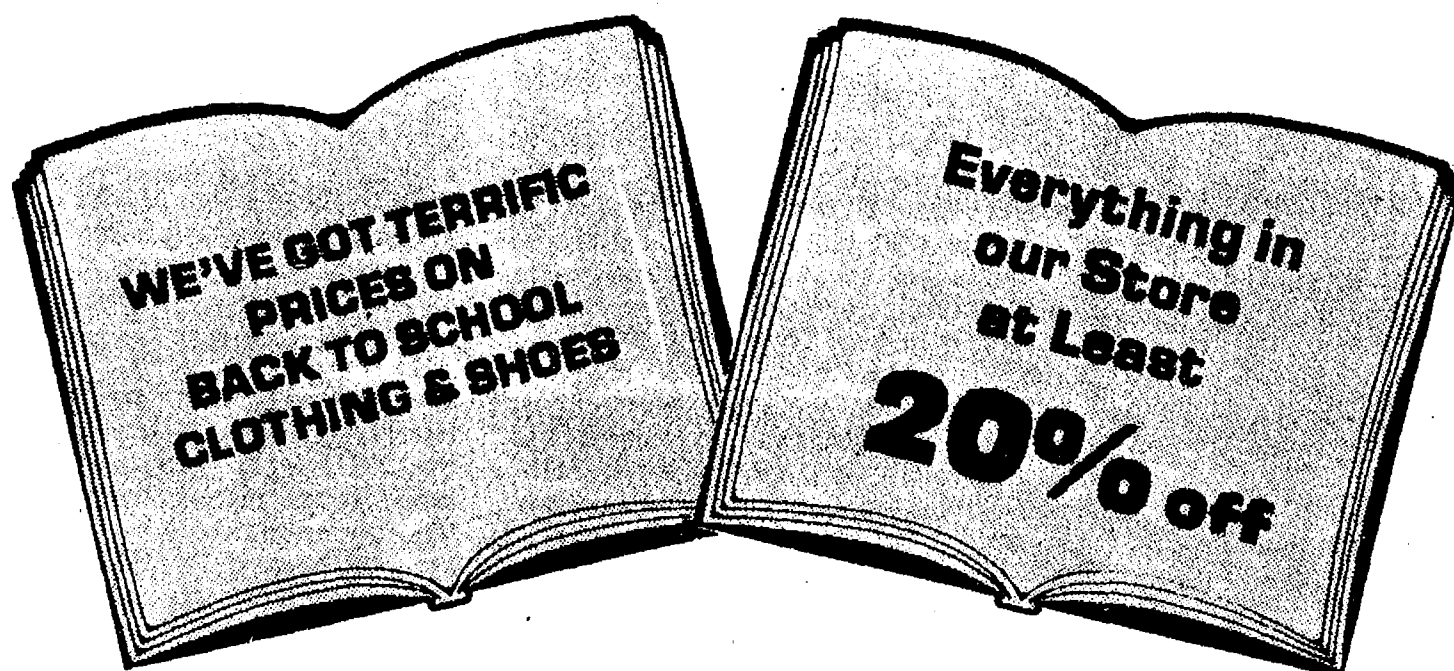

Kellogg did say that the approximately 8,000 Michigan guards were not confined to base after the incident as some published reports stated. The units left Camp Grayling Friday and Saturday as scheduled.

From Our Corner...

For what it's worth...if you're interested...

This past week has been a tough one for the ol' fella...it must be senility setting in...

We have experienced times in our past 40 years that we have had mud on our face for a mistake here and there, and then we have had pie on our face when we really were embarrassed when the Avalanche hit the street...

We coped with those incidences as a young fledgling in the newspaper world...we shrugged them off...with the thought, there is another day...to make another mistake...and at the same time trying not to make the same one as before...

Before the ink had dried on last week's issue the phones in the office began to ring...

Probably the first was from an irate woman who wanted to know why there was nothing in the paper about the accident in Kalkaska county where a person was killed...her remark was, people want to read about accidents, not, who visited their next door neighbor...

Our only answer, is if the person wishes to read about those kind of stories...buy the two Detroit papers or the Bay City Times...there is much reading of that sort there...and besides, the Avalanche's main purpose is to try and cover Crawford County...

The next irate caller was...how come nothing was in the paper about the no-kill on the AuSable...we had heard that the decision had been out on hold for an Attorney General's ruling...and I guess I was thinking too much on getting to the courthouse Tuesday morning so I could sign up for social security...we apologize to the fisherman...

On the next one, we really had some of our readers perturbed, and well they should be...

These readers were interested in going out to camp Grayling to witness the Michigan National Guard Parade in Review...

A few went out to Camp on Friday expecting to witness the review that was held on Thursday...the avalanche steered them wrong...in the Guard story said tomorrow for the parade...feeling that the readers get some of their papers on Wednesday, was all right...the Avalanche dates Thursdays...I can appreciate the concern of those readers who get the paper Thursday and missed the parade...

It is on the trestle board that dates will be included with the days in future articles that have a meaning on what is to happen...

The next one is really the one for the pie on our face...

Probably for the past two-three years, we have passed the job of putting the front page together to Jon Thompson, writer-photographer of the Avalanche...

Well, this past week Jon took his family and spent the week exploring Canada...

Really and truly we figured we had done a fair job as we glanced over the page and went on to finish the last four pages...

We didn't realize our goof until sitting in front of Cross' Corner Store in Frederic when I picked up loose paper while LeRoy was inside the store...

We transposed the band story with the VA clinic story and at the same time we transposed the columns of the band story...with the goof, we hope people read it, and will support the new band uniform drive...they need all of your help...

This past week, we have found out we have many infallible readers...but then, they are the ones who keep us trying to be one of them...

Time to bid T.J., Stefany and Amber goodnight, and to all of our readers, do have a nice weekend, it's Labor Day, and in case you haven't noticed...there is a lot of fall in the air...

protect our children...

This year's race will mark the second time since the race's inception that the two-man teams will get a chance to rest overnight between the two laps in the race. Last year Ralph Sawyer, and Ronnie Hohman, both of Oscoda, took the $1,200 first place money by completing the 240-mile course, which includes six portages, in 14 hours and 50 minutes. Most of the AuSable River canoe racers will use racing canoes, designed originally by Sawyer. They are sleek 70-pound craft, narrower in beam than normal canoes. The race again this year will take place at the height of the fall color season in the north. The race drew some 50,000 spectators along the river banks last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Luter and children Robbie and Kathie of Garden City arrived Wednesday night and the children stayed with their grandparents, the Bob Stronges, while the Luters enjoyed a vacation in the U.P. The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

JEHOVAH OUR PRESERVER

What is the eternal force which created and preserves all things? What eternal Being is worshipped as the supporter and preserver of all matter and life?

"Thou, even thou, art LORD (Jehovah) alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee." (Nehemiah 9:6).

Just as we have proven by Holy Scriptures that our Lord Jesus Christ is the Jehovah who created all things, even so, He is worshipped as the preserver of all things. "For by him (our Lord Jesus Christ v. 3) were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist (or hold together)." (Colossians 1:16, 17).

Not only is our Lord Jesus Christ the Jehovah of Nehemiah 9:6 who created and preservest all things, but He is the Jehovah who is worshipped by the host of heaven. "And again, when he bringeth in the first-begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him." (Hebrews 1:6). Our Lord Jesus Christ said only God could be worshipped. "Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve." (Matthew 4:10). This is one of the 10 commandments given by Jehovah in the Old Testament. "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." (Exodus 20:3). Our Lord Jesus Christ claimed to be this Jehovah or Lord, "Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am." (John 13:13).

The Holy Scriptures of Hebrews 1:1-3 tie it all together. "God...Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high."

Have you trusted our Lord Jesus Christ as your creator, preserver, redeemer, and reigning Jehovah? In eternity every knee will bow to Jesus Christ and every tongue will confess Him as Lord, (Philippians 2:9-11) but then it will be too late.

Almanack

Politics is (are?) Strange Business

by Richard Milliman

POLITICS IS, indeed, a wonderfilled area of public concern.

It revolves around controversy, even from the inception of the term. For example, is the word "politics" either singular or plural as a word form? If it is single — and that's the theory to which I hold — then what is the plural form? Is it "politicesses"? Or "politiici"? And if not, why not?

Then (using the singular form of the word), is politics an art, or is it a science? Is it exact, or is it guesswork? Is it a vocation, or is it a hobby? And if it is one of the above in each series of questions, why is it not the other?

No wonder there is fascination with the business of politics. Some people can't even agree on the word itself.

But we're in it in Michigan and other states, right up to our necks this year.

POLITICS, IT IS SAID in one of the more famous descriptions of the activity, is the quickest way to go from "who's who" to "who's that?"

To prove the point, hark back to the last gubernatorial election in Michigan before this year. We all know James Blanchard won, but who was his opponent in the general election of 1982?

Okay, naming Richard Headlee as the Republican candidate defeated by Gov. Blanchard is not so tough; but who was Mr. Headlee's running mate for lieutenant governor?

Those who guessed Thomas Brennan may move up one rung of the ladder.

But try these: There also were elections for attorney general and secretary of state in that same election, as there will be this year. Winners (of course) were Frank Kelley and Richard Austin. But who were their Republican opponents?

No quick answer here while we prove our point a bit further.

BACK IN 1982, the governor's race was wide open. Former Gov. William Milliken was withdrawing from office after a record number of years in the front office, so both Republicans and Democrats (fueled by Michigan's questionable public financing system that encourages questionable candidates to run for governor) flocked into the primaries in vast numbers. As noted above, James Blanchard came out on top among the Democrats and Richard Headlee won among the Republicans.

But who were the also-rans back in 1982? Now, if you can answer that one without ponderous reference to back newspaper files or musty election record books, you can move directly to the top of the class.

THIS WHOLE EXERCISE proves a valuable point. Every election has at least one loser who most frequently slides from public favor and public attention in the time it takes to blink an eye.

A case in point: Down south a few years back, a political hopeful named John Amos tried his hand at running for office. He later founded and served as president of American Family Insurance Company in Atlanta, but earlier he ran for district attorney in northern Florida and lost by three votes.

"I got 49.99 percent of the vote and ended up in debt," lamented Mr. Amos. "If I'd been selling insurance or soap or anything else, and got 49.99 percent of the market, I'd have been rich."

Yes, indeed: Politics is the quickest road from "who's who" to "who's that."

BEFORE WE LEAVE politics in this essay, I must acknowledge that I stumbled a bit in forecasting the August 5 primary, missing half the races I predicted.

I properly predicted James Blanchard would win the Democratic nomination; as forecast he defeated Henry Hank Wilson. One on the "correct" side.

But I also predicted Richard Chrysler would win the Republican nomination. He didn't. Bill Lucas did. Chrysler finished second. One on the "wrong" side.

This is no attempt to alibi. I wrote my prediction about two weeks before the primary and before the Detroit News stories claimed possible irregularities in unemployment compensation programs at Chrysler's plant. Unquestionably that publicity hurt Chrysler, coming as it did only days before the primary. Mr. Chrysler himself claims it cost him the election, and that his poll rating plunged 18 points because of the late publicity.

I think Mr. Chrysler is overestimating the damage, but there's no question the bad publicity hurt. Whether it cost him the election is something that can never be proved, but the belief that it did will warm Mr. Chrysler's heart on many chill winter evenings in future years. Oh, what could have been...

As to my prediction, it was simply wrong, partly because strange and unforeseen things often happen in politics. That's one reason I don't predict too often.

QUIZ ANSWERS — Now to the quiz answers.

Running for attorney general against Frank Kelley in 1982 was L. Brooks Patterson. Opposing Richard Austin for secretary of state was Elizabeth A. Andrus.

Candidates in the crowded Democratic gubernatorial primary were Zolton Ferency, William B. Fitzgerald, Kerry Kammer, Edward C. Pierce, David A. Plawewski, John Safran, and, of course, James J. Blanchard.

The Republican primary was only a bit less populated. In addition to winner Richard H. Headlee, candidates were L. Brooks Patterson, James H. Brickley and John A. Welborn.

As they say in politics, "Who's that?"

NEW PLAYGROUND FOR CHILDREN — The Business and Professional Women's organization donated $12,165 to the City of Grayling to buy this equipment for children located in the city park. About $10,500 has been spent with another $1,665 left to be spent toward more new equipment. The new playground has been an instant hit with children and parents in the area. The BPW led a community drive to raise the $12,165. The Grayling Youth Booster Club donated almost half of the amount, $6,000.

Herbal Corner

Just heard from one of our foster boys today and it looks as though we will see him more often. Needless to say it was a pleasant surprise.

Had a couple in a few weeks ago and they threw me a little tidbit. Darlin', did you know that corn will not grow in Alaska? "Why not," says I, "It appears to me I recall you having a warmer summer than us a couple years ago." It seems that corn needs darkness to form its ears. Since Alaska has three months of continual light...

Cucumbers make you think of pickles or plainly sliced on a plate—maybe with a little olive oil and vinegar. But did you know that cucumber has been part of the cosmetic industry for decades. It is excellent for rubbing over the skin to keep it soft and white. It is cooling, healing, and soothing to an irritated skin, especially when it has been exposed to sun or wind. Cucumber slices over the eyes has been known to decrease puffiness.

Cucumber lotion for sunburn is made by chopping up a cucumber and squeezing out the juice with a lemon-squeezer. Mix this with a quantity of glycerine and rose-water mixed together in equal parts.

Cucumber seeds have been used for bowel problems. No, darlin', you eat them. In fact dried cucumber seeds were reported to have the same properties as pumpkin seeds. By the way did you know that pumpkin seeds were used to expel worms because the worms do not like the green pigment in the seed? I might also add that raw pumpkin seeds are excellent bowel purges without gas or pain.

Herbally yours,
E. Diona Cerelli, C.H.

Youth Service Bureau

The AuSable Valley Youth Service Bureau has completed its final week of our Summer Counseling and Recreation Program.

Last week we provided the following activities:

Monday Group A, backpacking in the D. Ward Orchard area. It was fun, but there were a few sore legs.

Tuesday Group B, swim at Pine Knoll.

Wednesday Group B, McIntire Landing Day Camp. The group swam, sunbathed, and played in the sand. (We had almost as much sand in the car as there was on the beach!)

Thursday Group A, the six group A members with the best attendance and behavior were rewarded with a trip to Mackinac Island. What a nice day to be on the island! Our only regret was that the trip couldn't have been longer.

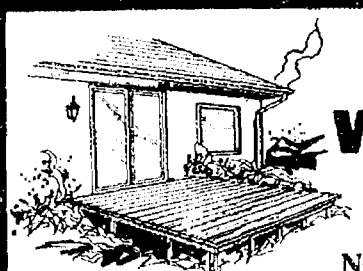

It's been a great summer. We have made a lot of new friends and had loads of fun. We are already planning things for next year.

Have a nice holiday. Hope to see you all at school this fall.

We are a United Way supported agency!

New Surgeon To Serve Area

James D. Frytogle, B.A., M.D., M.S. in surgery, will begin serving our area in several medical fields. Dr. Frytogle holds academic degrees from Albion College, Wayne State University College of Medicine, University of Minnesota, and the Mayo Clinic. He is now a permanent resident of Roscommon County, although the family have been summer residents for the past 35 years. Dr. Frytogle brings to the medical community a vast experience in Thoracic and Cardiovascular surgery and will serve as a surgical consultant to the area hospitals.

Board certified in surgery and a founding member of the Society for Thoracic Surgery, he hopes to increase the technical expertise of the region. The addition of a C.T. scanner, a pacemaker center, and improved diagnostic facilities are goals he has set.

As a Federal Health Planner, Dr. Frytogle has served as Vice-president of the comprehensive Health Planning Council of Southeast Michigan, Chairman of the Seven County Medical Planning Committee, and presently serves on the Executive Committee of the Governor appointed State Health Coordinating Committee.

Most beneficial to the community will be the work of the W.D. Frytogle Medical Research Laboratory. For the past 24 years, the many friends who have supported the laboratory's efforts - patients, teachers, engineers, manufacturers, doctors, nurses, and just plain folks - have combined in this (non-profit) effort to train students in the discipline of laboratory protocol. Activities ranged from high school biology students with their science fair projects to post graduate surgical residents perfecting instrumentation and technique. The laboratory works in plastic, electronics and vital tissues and holds several patents.

The annual meeting of the laboratory will be in October at the Community Center at Kirtland Community College. The public is invited.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

By Wendell L. Hoover, Park Interpreter

The other night we listened to the repeated calls of a whippoorwill, but it is not often one sees the bird because they are superbly camouflaged. One author said of their plumage that it is about as drab and colorless as a coalminer's laundry. They will sit so tight on their daytime perch that you almost have to step on them to make them fly; on the other hand, the night is theirs.

The whippoorwill is an insect-eater of excellent capability. The bird flies through the night with its large mouth agape scooping in moths and other insects. One in fact was found with thirty-six moths in its stomach; sparrows and humming birds have also been eaten.

The Latin name for the Whippoorwill is Caprimulgus Vociferus. The philosopher, Aristotle, said it flies to the udders of she-goats where it sucks them and so gets its name. Probably the whippoorwills were catching the insects congregated around the thinly haired bellies of the goats, but the name stuck. The Latin name for goat is capri, and mulgere is "to milk", so the common name in some places is "goat-sucker".

The Whippoorwill family is found from southern Canada to northern Louisiana, east of the Mississippi River; but the bird in one form or another is found all the way into the South American tropics. All through this vast area the call of the whippoorwill is heard as the sun goes down. Just how little or how much light it takes to trigger the first call I cannot say, but I don't really care to know, as statistics have already taken some of the mystery from the natural world.

La Leche League To Meet Sept. 4

"The Advantages of Breastfeeding to Mother and Baby" will be the topic for discussion at the September meeting of the Grayling-Roscommon La Leche. This is the first in a series of four discussion meetings. The meeting will be held on Thursday, September 4 at 7:30 p.m. at 4587 Skyline Drive, Grayling.

La Leche League believes breastfeeding gives the best possible start in good mothering and helps to develop and deepen the close relationship between a mother and her child.

A series of meetings are held in members' homes, to acquaint those interested with the physical, practical, and psychological sides of breastfeeding.

Any woman interested in breastfeeding is welcome to attend. Expectant mothers are encouraged to attend the series before the baby arrives. Babies are always welcome. For further information, or for breastfeeding help, call Carolyn Crist at 275-8431.

Lotto Celebrates With New Instant Game

Lansing — Plans are underway to celebrate the second birthday of Michigan's Lotto games with a special four-week bonus offer for players.

Beginning Monday, August 25, the second anniversary of Michigan's first Lotto drawing, and continuing through Saturday, September 20, players who wager $5 at one time in either the Wednesday 6/40 Lotto game or the Saturday 6/44 Super Lotto game will receive a free $1 instant game ticket.

"Until September 9, these instant tickets will be for our 'Michigan 150' game which commemorates the state's sesquicentennial," said Lottery Commissioner Michael J. Carr. "After that, the free tickets will be for our 'Fall Fiesta' instant game."

"Both instant games offer grand prizes of $1,000-a-week-for-life, worth at least $1 million," Carr pointed out, "as well as millions of other cash prizes."

Overall odds of winning a prize ranging from a free ticket to a top prize in the instant games are about one in four.

Carr noted that the original 6/40 Lotto became a twice-a-week game on its first anniversary in 1985. The 6/44 Super Lotto game began in April of this year, with drawings held each Saturday, and the regular 6/40 Lotto reverted at that time to once-a-week drawings held on Wednesdays.

"Through August 11 of this year, Lotto and Super Lotto have produced more than 1.5 million winners of prizes totaling nearly $470 million," he said. "We have seen 122 new Lottery millionaires in these games, winning amounts ranging from $1 million to more than $10 million."

"At the same time, the Lotto games have provided approximately $280 million in funds earmarked for the state School Aid Fund to help support K-12 education."

Egg Whites

Eggs darken aluminum. Beat egg whites in bowls made of stainless steel, glass, porcelain or enamel.

If an eggshell cracks while it is being boiled, seal it by immediately adding a splash of vinegar to the boiling water.

Caroline and Emery have raised six children, five boys and one girl, many of whom were on hand to help them celebrate. The couple has resided in the St. Helen area for many years where Emery still lives.

Announce Engagement

Mr. & Mrs. Timothy Martin of Grayling would like to announce the engagement of their daughter, Lisa, to Timothy Clonan, son of Mr. & Mrs. David Clonan of Grand Rapids.

An October 4, 1986 wedding is planned.

Camp Vanderbilt Opens In Pigeon River Valley

For the first time in over 40 years, a camp patterned after the Civilian Conservation Corps was set up in the forests of northern Michigan, Governor James J. Blanchard today announced.

A new residential center for 40 members of the Michigan Civilian Conservation Corps (MCCC), Camp Vanderbilt, opened today in the Pigeon River Valley near Vanderbilt. It serves as a home and learning center for Corps members who will work on forestry-related projects throughout northern Michigan.

"Following in the footsteps of the CCC'ers of the 1930s, these young men and women will continue the tradition of stewardship of our lands while building a new life for themselves," said Governor Blanchard. "Corps members should come away with a sense of pride and accomplishment from their year at Camp Vanderbilt for achieving a solid work record and making a lasting contribution to Michigan."

In addition to a full day of work each day, Camp Vanderbilt residents will be offered education and training opportunities during evening hours. Classes will be offered in fitness, budgeting, reading, and health. All participants without a high school diploma will be required to take GED classes.

All MCCC members are 18- to 25-year-old men and women receiving public assistance at the time they join the program. While enrolled in the MCCC, they earn minimum wage at conservation-related jobs for one year and are supervised by the Department of Natural Resources.

"We're striving to capture the spirit the CCC program generated more than a half-century ago. The program proved to be a tremendous success which helped young people gain stamina, build character and prepare for the future," said Gov. Blanchard. "We hope Camp Vanderbilt will repeat that success."

Participating in the opening ceremony were Department of Natural Resources Director Gordon E. Guyer, MCCC Director, Tim Ervin, alumni of the CCC, MCCC members, local officials and businesspersons.

Camp Proud Lake, a similar MCCC residential center, is located in Oakland County, near Pontiac.

Fiberglass Fixtures

by Gail Edwards
Ext. Home Eco.

Fiberglass bathtubs and showers have become very popular since their introduction 30 years ago. These fixtures are made of plastic with fiberglass added for strength. They are strong and lightweight and can be molded into desired shapes in one piece without seams and crevices that can trap dirt. The plastic surface is smooth and easy to clean.

Because these fixtures are used where people wash, they will collect body soil and soap scum and should be cleaned regularly. If the soil builds up, it will be more difficult to remove.

Use only mild cleaners that won't scratch the smooth surface. This means no abrasives - no scouring powders, abrasives pads or steel wool! Once you scratch that smooth surface, dirt will collect in tiny grooves and crevices and you will have a tough cleaning job from then after.

A slightly alkaline household cleaner and hot water used regularly will remove soil. Always rinse with clear water. Dishwashing liquids or liquid laundry detergents are good cleaners, or you may want to use an all-purpose household liquid or spray cleaner.

Even baking soda, moistened with water to the consistency of a paste and applied with a sponge or soft nylon brush, can do the job, but gently, not hard.

Hard water mineral deposits can be removed with a product specifically designed for that purpose. They are usually mild acids. I would suggest you analyze your problem and then read labels of various products to determine which you need. Always wear rubber gloves and follow directions exactly.

Older People and Community Life

Housing for older people depends on individual preference, need, income and the availability of accommodations. The choice is much the same for citizens of all ages.

Basically, most elderly persons prefer to live in familiar surroundings and to remain self-directed as long as possible. They wish to remain in their own homes with friends and neighbors nearby or to move to living quarters that will make them closer to other family members.

Some older people see their late mature years as an opportunity for self-fulfillment and seek residences that will bring them into closer contact with their peers.

Only a small percentage of those over sixty-five must live in institutions. The vast majority of the elderly, about 95%, continue to make their home either with their spouse, by living alone, or as a member of a relative's family. Approximately one-third of the elderly live in senior citizen centers.

Home ownership is one of the elderly couple's principal equities. As long as they are physically able to care for their home, most persons enjoy the privacy and familiarity a home provides. Approximately two-thirds of the elderly couples own their own homes, few of which are city dwellers, though. A large number still live in the house in which they raised their families, although homes that were sufficiently large for a growing family are often too large and expensive for retired couples to maintain.

"The Lettermen" To Appear at Kirtland Sept. 14th

The first event of the 1986-87 Performing Artist Series at Kirtland Community College will be "The Lettermen" on Sunday, September 14, 1986 at 7 p.m. in the Gilbert I. Stewart Auditorium.

The dictionary defines harmony as "a combination of musical sounds considered to be pleasing." The music world could define harmony as "The Lettermen." For more than twenty years, The Lettermen — Tony Butala, Mark Preston, and Donovan Scott Key; each of whom are entertainers in their own right — have kept the meaning of harmony alive with their soft, romantic, harmonic blend of music which is as popular with their fans today as it was in 1961 when they recorded their first hit, "The Way You Look Tonight."

To their credit, The Lettermen have over 50 albums — nine certified gold — and a myriad of hits including "When I Fall In Love," "Come Back Silly Girl," "Theme From A Summer Place," "Goin' Out Of My Head/Can't Take My Eyes Off Of You," "Put Your Head On My Shoulder," and "Shangri-La."

Today, The Lettermen find themselves maintaining a very full schedule including concerts, club dates, television work (guest appearances as well as their own specials) and headline appearances on the Nevada/Atlanta City circuit.

"You have to give your audience your all," states record producer and group founder Tony Butala. "The public needs to get more from your personal appearances than they can derive by staying at home listening to their albums. This is where entertaining has to see you through. I feel The Lettermen are entertainers who just happen to have a recording career."

The Lettermen keep no secret about the fact that they love what they do. In the course of their career, they have performed more than 7,000 shows; yet each time they sing their hits, they say it is a new experience as each audience is new. Wherever they perform, The Lettermen always enjoy their audiences enough to touch them.

Tickets for the Lettermen are $11.50, 10.00 and 8.50 for regular admission and $9.50, 8.00, and 6.50 for students and senior citizens. To purchase tickets call Kirtland Community College at 517-275-5121. After Sept. 2, 1986, tickets can be purchased directly from the Kirtland Community College Bookstore.

Masons to Meet

Grayling Lodge #356 will hold a Regular Communication on Thursday evening, September 4th at 7:30 p.m. It is anticipated that an E.A. Degree will be presented this night.

RSVP Profile... Evelyn Fraser

Evelyn Fraser

In recognition of the many years of dedicated service in Roscommon county and particularly to her home community of Roscommon, the lifetime resident of Lyon Township, Evelyn Fraser is being singly honored to represent Roscommon county at a Governor's RSVP 15th Anniversary Open House Tea-Reception in Lansing on September 24th.

Recognition is long overdue. Born at Higgins Lake in Lyons Township she graduated from Grayling High School. She then attended and graduated from Kalamazoo Business College. Her marriage to Roy Fraser followed in 1930. This union was blessed with three daughters, Zenith Hartman (deceased), Rita Fay and Jean Crosby of Traverse City. Evelyn is the grandmother of seven and great grandmother to eight.

With Roy there was the start of her social work as both were active in VFW Post 4159 where both were charter members, she in the Woman's Auxiliary. The volunteer work then started continued after Mr. Fraser's death in 1957. Another activity is working in the Rebekah Lodge (Oddfellows fraternal organization) holding a 39-year membership. In this organization Evelyn has held all offices having gone up the ladder twice, being a Post Noble Grand Master.

Other organizations knowing her helpful presence is the Red Cross and the Senior Citizens. Mrs. Fraser has not neglected the religious aspects of her life, showing christian zeal in a variety of endeavors at her church,

First Congregational in Roscommon. Evelyn has been instrumental in the origin of the "Meals on Wheels" program which began serving the community in 1973, being on the Advisory Board since 1972. Holds membership on the Trio Council Board, headquartered at West Branch.

Mrs. Fraser's zeal for community service was sparked in the early 40's when the Mattheson brothers asked her to contribute a column to the paper on local activities. The column "Higgins Lake News" has been an integral part of the newspaper ever since.

Evelyn Fraser derives much pleasure on being privileged to serve the less fortunate and handicapped, dedicating her life to that principal, in appreciation for the many blessings bestowed over the years, and thankful in attaining the biblical milestone of seven decades-plus.

Resource Review

by Bruce Patrick
 Conservation Officer

Robert Jackson and Robert Norton, following extensive research into hunter attitudes in Wisconsin, have identified five phases which hunters pass through as they develop.

Phase One is identified as the "Shooter Stage" and is characterized by individual satisfaction with simply firing one's gun or bow, whether at a legal game animal, a protected animal or an inanimate target, such as a sign or insulator.

Phase Two, the "Limiting Out Stage" is where the hunter measures success almost solely by what he bags. If he limits out, or comes near, he is happy.

In Phase Three, or "Trophy Stage", the hunter is concerned with the big buck or other hard to attain goals. Shooting opportunity or shooting skill become less important than in the first two phases.

Next, the hunter enters the "Method Stage" where doing things "right" is the prime motivation, more important even than taking game.

The fifth and final phase is the "Sportsman Stage". This is a mellowing out stage which most hunters don't reach until they have many years of hunting experience. Satisfaction is gained through local appreciation of nature and/or companionship of partners or family.

These descriptions of the phases are of course general, as is the finding that there is chronological progression through them. Many young hunters are mature beyond their years. On the other hand, the slob among us are stalled in Phase One or Two and may be 60 years old.

Be honest with yourself. Where do you and your friends fit into this hunter evolution scale?

Receives GVS Scholarship

Christine McLaughlin, a 1986 graduate of Grayling High School, has received a Presidential Scholarship from Grand Valley State College. She plans to begin her studies at GVSC this fall as a photography major.

Presidential Scholars receive $2,000 annually while they are Grand Valley students if they maintain good academic standing.

M.D.A. Telethon at Caesars Palace

Jerry Lewis's 21½-hour telethon to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association (M.D.A.) will be broadcast live for the fifth consecutive year from Caesars Palace in Las Vegas.

The Labor Day weekend entertainment spectacular will air starting Sunday, August 31 at 9 p.m. (E.S.T.), according to Shirley Mowery, Crawford County telethon co-ordinator. "Caesars Palace is a superb place to have the telethon," noted Mrs. Mowery. "The facilities are the best, and the Caesars staff is dedicated to helping the show run smoothly. We're looking forward to topping telethon '85's fantastic success."

The 1985 edition of the Labor Day broadcast was the most successful in the show's history, and raised over $33 million in pledges.

M.D.A. currently sponsors some 500 individual research projects worldwide. The Association also supports some 240 hospital-affiliated outpatient clinics nationwide where people with any of the 40 disorders covered by M.D.A. programs receive a wide variety of medical services.

Viking Band Uniform Fund Raising Info.

Viking Band Boosters was formed September 1985. The first year was active: Boosters provided refreshments at concerts, chaperoned festival performances, purchased concert bow ties, purchased all band awards for the year, and began annual scholarships for band camp. The major fund raiser for the year was the Citrus Fruit Sale. Funds were solicited from various service groups and these funds were used to purchase a sound system for the High School Band Room and shirts to march in the parades. Service organizations contributing to Viking Band Boosters this first year were: Moose Lodge, Lioness Club, Eagle Ladies Auxiliary, Rotary, Professional Womens Association, Grayling Lions, Grayling Promotional Association, Crawford County Arts Council, Kiwanis Club, Crawford-AuSable Athletic Department, and the band students activity fund.

Viking Band Boosters supports an active band program. Forty students will participate in the high school band's 1986-87 season, 58 in the middle school band, and the fifth grade will begin again. During the 1985-86 season the bands played at all football games, and presented three concerts. For the first time in many years, both middle and high school bands received a II rating at Band Festival. After the festival, students enthusiastically volunteered for solo ensemble.

The Crawford-AuSable School's contribution to the band program demonstrates commitment. The district hired a most exceptional and gifted band director. In addition, they provided a generous budget for music and purchased $34,027 in band instruments to support the program.

At this time, the band program's most pressing need is new uniforms. Present uniforms are over 13 years old and many are inadequate. Many jackets are small sizes and do not fit high school students. Pants are ripped and worn in the legs and shirts are mostly in children's sizes. Current uniforms total 65 jackets, 48 pants, 44 shirts, and 67 overalls. The varsity marching band this year will stretch this supply of uniforms to the limit as shortages occurred last year with a smaller band.

The policy is in place to care for the current and future uniform supply. Uniforms are numbered and assigned to specific students. Following each performance, they are checked in, hung properly and stored on school grounds. Uniforms are cleaned annually.

New Uniforms - Will be made out of a wool blend fabric. New purchases will include a band director's uniform, drum major uniform, ten flag corps, and 100 marching-concert band uniforms. The uniform order must be placed by March 1987 to be available for the 87-88 school year. The total cost will be $30,000.

The students have worked very hard this year to make the program successful. Practice and attendance for all band functions has been excellent. In addition to practicing and marching in parades this summer some students will be attending camp. Three students will attend a two week band camp, one drum major camp, and two flag corps camp.

GPA News

By Fay

GPA is on the move again! Now that a successful parade for the Milltown Festival is history the Grayling Promotional Association can look forward to fall planning and Christmas activities.

The GPA were on hand at the County Fair to hand out free balloons to the children. Mary Jane Kribbs and Paula Buchanan were in charge of the project.

The next big project is the fall decorating to make the city look attractive to residents and visitors alike. So many visitors come to our community for the fall color and the GPA plans to add to it by decorating with various items associated with fall, colorful leaves, cornstalks, pumpkins, etc. The following are in charge of various parts of the area: Norma Naour, the City Park; Donna Thomson, the Courthouse; Rose Duley, the Road Commission corner; Gloria Kraus, the Mini-Mall, and Judy Weaver, the vacant lot on Michigan Avenue. It is hoped that everyone, business people and townspeople will add to the decorations. The date set for this activity is Sunday, September 14.

Following all of this fall activity, the women will be starting to work on the Thanksgiving weekend activities with the lighting of the Christmas white lights on November 28. Plans are underway for the mailboxes for Santa Claus and the arrival of Santa at the Courthouse. The summer is hardly over but in order to run smoothly, all activities must be planned well in advance.

Another of the group's projects, the room in the upstairs of the depot, is well underway with committee members working on that.

Some of the women have been attending the Guard receptions hosted by the Chamber of Commerce at the American Legion parking lot. Guardsmen are interested in the area, the businesses and activities that make up the community in which they spend several weeks a year. The last Guard reception will be held this Thursday, August 28, at the Guard Armory at Camp Grayling.

The organization now has 52 paid-up members and would welcome more who are interested in promoting Grayling which is the purpose of the group. They meet for lunch every Tuesday noon for one hour at Shoppenagon's Hotel.

Auditions at Kirtland for Fall Musical Production

Auditions will be held for Kirtland Community Players fall musical production of "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum" on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 9 and 10, 1986, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. in the Gilbert I. Stewart Auditorium at Kirtland Community College. Performances will be October 24, 25, and 26, 1986.

"Forum" was written by Burt Shevelove and Larry Gelbart of M*A*S*H fame, with music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim.

The story concerns the connivings of a certain slave, Pseudolus, to achieve his freedom. His young master, Hero, promises Pseudolus his freedom if he can obtain for Hero the beautiful girl, Phila, whom he has seen from a window. Deliciously unsavory characters, parents, neighbors and even strangers, are involved in the mounting confusion as this side-splitting comedy unwinds.

"We are going to need lots of people for this one", stated Douglas Purcell, Cultural Events Coordinator at Kirtland Community College, "men and women from ages 16 or so on up."

People who audition should have a song prepared and will also do some reading from the script.

Purcell continues, "We keep our auditioning procedure as simple and 'user friendly' as possible. If you have never tried out before, but have wanted to - now is the time."

The rest of the Kirtland Community Players season is as challenging as "Forum". During the winter semester, the new hit comedy "Greater Tuna" will be done.

Purcell stated, "We were very lucky to get the rights to perform this play. It is very new and extremely popular with the professional theaters right now."

KCP will expand its programming by offering a summer musical in 1987. This musical will be "Evita". Audition dates and performance times will be announced later in the year.

For more information call Douglas Purcell at Kirtland Community College 275-5121.

Application forms are being sent to all homes with a letter to parents or guardians. To apply for free or reduced-price meals, households should fill out the form and return it to the school. Additional copies of the application form are available at the principal's office in each school. Households should answer all questions on the form. An application which does not contain all of the following information cannot be processed by the school: (1) the total household income AND the amount and source of income received by each household member (such as wages, child support, etc.) OR the household's food stamp case number if the household is on food stamps; (2) names of all household members; (3) social security numbers of all household members 21 years of age or older, or the word "none" for any adult household member who does not have a social security number; and (4) the signature of an adult household member.

Households may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If a household is not currently eligible but has a decrease in household income, an increase in household size or if a household member becomes unemployed, the household should fill out an application at that time.

In certain cases foster children are eligible for these benefits regardless of the household's income. If a household has foster children living with them and they wish to apply for free or reduced-price meals for them, the household should contact the school for more information.

The existing program for K-4 students will remain unchanged. The sixth grade academic program will remain unchanged and a daily program of enrichment classes will be offered. Contact with the school regarding all students attending Grayling Elementary should be through the Grayling Elementary office. Sixth grade students will be governed by elementary rules and with the exception of changing classes each period, will follow the elementary program including regularly scheduled recess periods.

IMMUNIZATION

The Michigan Public Health Code requires that Kindergarten students and students new to a district must present proof of at least one dose of measles, mumps, rubella, tetanus, pertussis, diphtheria and polio vaccine to enter school. Kindergarten students will not be admitted until proof of immunization is shown and students new to the district must present proof through a transfer of records from another district or from their physician within one month after they enroll or they will be excluded from school until such proof is shown. The Public Health Department in the County Courthouse has waiver forms for those seeking waivers to this code for religious reasons.

A View of The Royal Wedding

The day unfolded like clockwork. Every step made was meticulously planned down to the minute. Unbelievably, the schedule was follow-

Neither rain nor snow could keep thousands of fans from camping out to reserve the best viewing spots. These four dozing Scots gladly suffered through 48 hours of cold pavement, occasional drizzle, and the fear of being stepped on in order to claim this space in front of Westminster Abbey.

Tens of thousands of loyal royalists lined the two-mile procession route from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Abbey. As the ceremony drew nearer, the crowds pressed the gates to catch a glimpse. With tears of pride in their eyes, they yelled their congratulations and frantically waved their Union Jacks in support.

Grayling, MI 49738

I have read with some amusement and dismay, a recent letter sent to the Avalanche from "Mr. Helping Hand, Sr.". Mr. Helping Hand's letter is filled with several errors and misconceptions. There is small wonder that he did not sign the letter personally. I can not speak for all of the physicians in this area, but I feel that I do need to rebut several points that were made in his inaccurate letter.

Let me first clarify what accepting Medicare assignment means. It means that the Medicare insurance payment is made directly to the physician for his/her services. When the doctor accepts assignment it means he/she has agreed that the total charge for the covered service will be the charge approved by Medicare. The patient is still responsible for the deductible and the 20% co-payment.

Mr. Helping Hand states that most physicians in this country are accepting Medicare assignment at present. This is simply not true. Nationally, data from the Health Care Financing Administration indicate that the number of participating Medicare physicians during fiscal year 1986 was 130,179, and that is down from 138,179 during fiscal year 1985. This means that nationally, physician participation in Medicare has dropped from 30.4% in fiscal year 1985 to 28.4% in this year. In New Mexico, the participating rate has dropped from 44.6% to 18.4% this year. In Nevada it has dropped from 32.7% to 20.4%. In the District of Columbia it has dropped from 53.3% to 30.5% and in Colorado it has dropped from 42.2% to 29.9%. This indicates that slightly more than one in four physicians in this country currently participate with Medicare.

Mr. Helping Hand does note that rising liability insurance costs have been very bothersome and are greatly increasing overhead costs to physicians, and in many cases making medical practice in Michigan increasingly unattractive. Some physicians in Michigan are paying up to $1,000 a week for malpractice insurance. Unfortunately, these costs are also to be passed on to patients. The cost of running a practice in this state has gone up very considerably and Medicare has dropped so far behind in updating fees that it is difficult for doctors accepting Medicare assignment to meet costs on these patients. One is then caught between extremely rapidly increasing costs, while contending with decreasing reimbursements from Medicare - particularly if one participates.

As a physician and internist in Grayling, I have voluntarily frozen my fees to the elderly and those on Medicare since 1981, and have not raised those fees. At this same time, my costs most notably liability insurance, have risen in a rather spectacular fashion. If I were to accept the low Medicare assignment, I would have to see more patients in a day and be even more hurried in the office. However, I refuse to compromise the quality of care that I feel I render to my patients in this community. I am very disillusioned and distrustful of the Medicare assignment agreements. I am not alone in this, as the national statistics above will bear out. I feel that fewer and fewer doctors will probably participate in Medicare as time goes by because of Medicare's previous track record.

Mr. Helping Hand also states that there may be an agreement against Medicare assignment. This is not the case. Each individual doctor must make up his mind for himself as to whether he will participate in an inefficient program which many of us have come to distrust. Medicare may take up to two months for reimbursement. There is also a resistance in being told who to treat and what to charge, knowing that the government has not kept its part of the bargain in the agreement that they have made with participating physicians in the past.

Mr. Helping Hand states that prescriptions can be obtained at no cost in Grayling. This is most interesting. We might ask Mr. Helping Hand to be more specific as to where the free drugs can be obtained and does this involve any insurance program.

I appreciate the chance to refute the various errors and insinuations made by Mr. Helping Hand.

Sincerely,
W.H. George, M.D.

Dear Whitey:

We at the Red Barn, in conjunction with Wertz Warriors (the famous snowmobile group that rides to Mackinaw City each February) and Lake County Distributors are holding an auction on Sunday, August 31st at 2:00 P.M. for the benefit of Michigan Special Olympics. The auction will be held in the Parking Lot of the Red Barn.

On hand for the event will be former Detroit Tiger Bill Freehan, lovely Miss Peggy Lynn, daughter of Loretta Lynn, radio and T.V. personalities, some members of the Wertz Warriors' group and as many of our local residents and tourists as we can accommodate.

We will be barbecuing kielbasa and hot dogs outdoors and plan to make this a fun time while raising money for these very special kids.

We would like to set a record contribution from our area this year and are asking for your help. Items to be auctioned are desperately needed in order to make this a success and we would greatly appreciate anything you can afford to donate. We will be happy to give you a receipt for the market value of your donation even if the top bid is for less. Please help us to help by donating one item for this auction. We will be glad to arrange for pick-up of these donations if you will call 348-8932.

Remember, for every dollar contributed by Crawford County, 25% is returned to this area to be spent on the mentally and physically handicapped participants from OUR county. Let's show Michigan that Crawford County Residents and Business People are the strongest supporters ever of the Michigan Special Olympics.... Please call Today...348-8932.

Do you have any idea who was the biggest man ever to play pro football?...Answer is Les Bingham who played for the Detroit Lions from 1948 through 1954...He set the pro football record in 1954 when he weighed in at 349 pounds.

Oddly enough, here's a football question that looks easy, but it's surprising how few fans—even the real good ones—can answer it...Try it on your friends and see...The question is this: Everybody knows a football field is 100 yards long from goal line to goal line—but, do you know how WIDE a football field is?...A football field is 160 feet, or 53 1/2 yards wide.

Ever wonder where the tradition started of having a band at football games...It was at Notre Dame, which was the first college in America to have a band...Their band first marched at a football game in 1888...They really started something, didn't they?

I bet you didn't know...That Scheer Motors in Grayling currently have in stock 170 new cars and trucks...Our huge inventory includes Pontiac, Cadillac, Olds, Buick, Chevrolet, Chrysler, Plymouth, and Dodge products. All are priced at year and clearance prices; we are also paying the highest trade-in prices in northern Michigan.

Natural Storage of Garden Harvest

BY Gail Edwards,
Ext. Home Eco.

Using the natural environment to store food has become almost a lost art. Before the advent of freezers and refrigerators, many foods, that weren't canned or available year round were simply stored in the home until needed.

Successful storage does not involve a large investment or loads of equipment. It requires only an awareness of the temperature and humidity required for successful storage of various crops and some materials and maintenance to assist natural conditions.

Late-maturing varieties of fruit that are stored properly remain dormant and do not complete their natural cycle of decomposition. Any that do spoil pose no hidden danger because you can tell by the look and smell if the food has spoiled.

Some vegetables require a moist environment while others require a dry one. Some need to be kept cool, some warm.

Such vegetables as beets, carrots, horseradish, leeks and parsnips require cold, moist surroundings. They can be stored in the garden throughout the winter. Mark the location and mulch with sawdust or some other insulating material to maintain uniform temperature, and keep the soil from freezing so you can harvest your crops all winter.

A storage mound or pit is an appropriate place to store cabbage and root crops. Place it in a well-drained area and line it with insulating material such as straw, dry leaves or soil. Cover the mound with more insulating material and then a layer of soil.

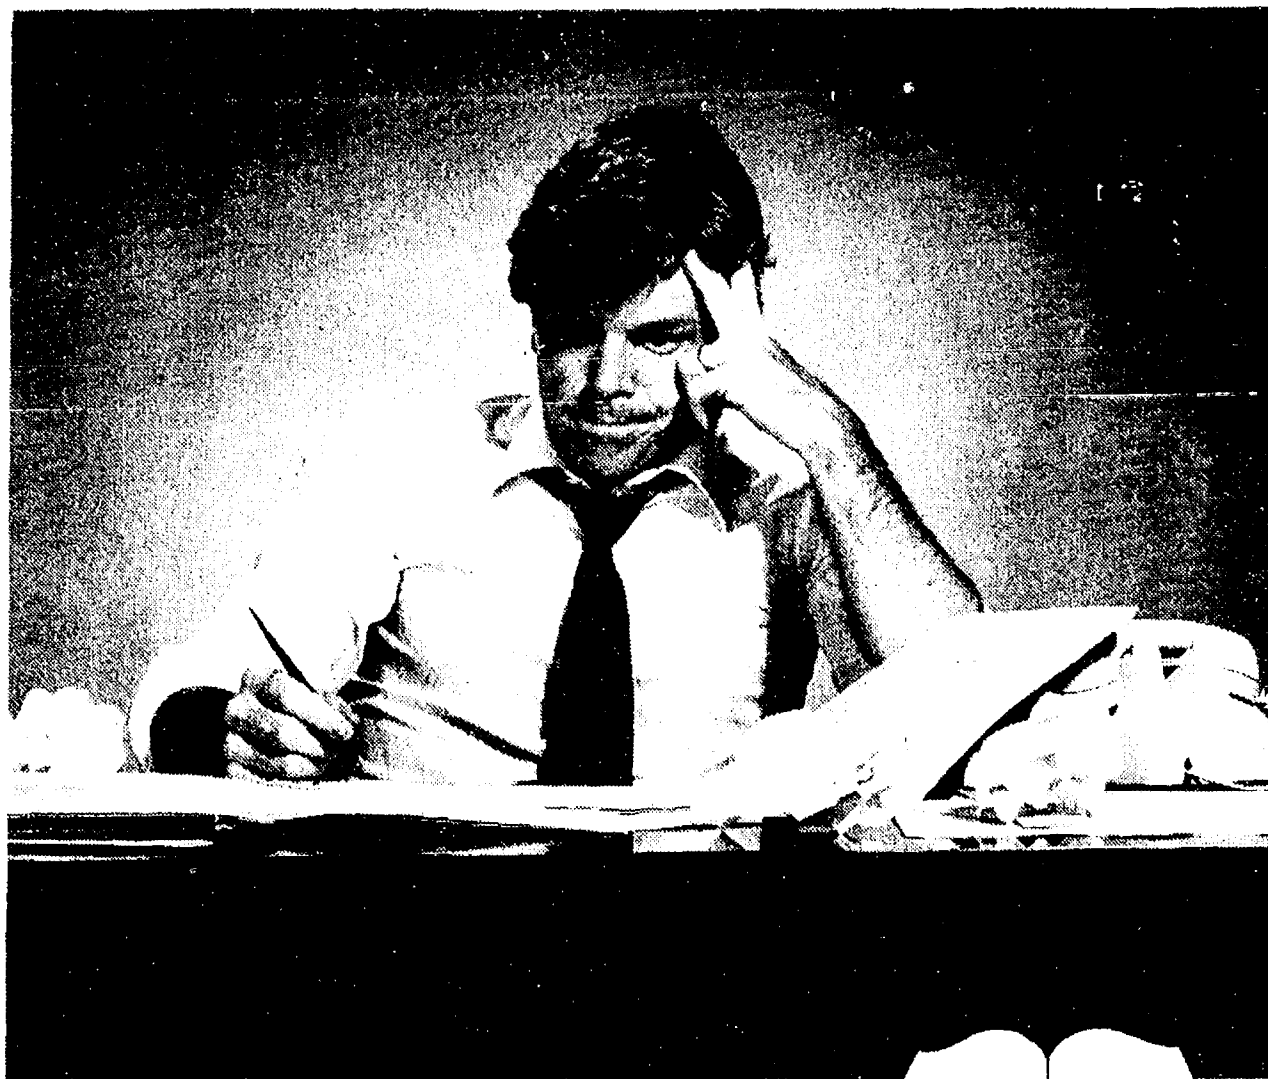

A cool, dark spot in the basement may be ideal for some foods. If your basement is cool and dry, you can store onions, garlic and peppers. A cool, moist basement would be well suited for storing potatoes, tomatoes and pears.

Containers and shelves built to hold fruits and vegetables should have slats to permit air circulation.

Temperature and humidity should be monitored and produce checked regularly for spoilage.

For more information about the specifics of storing foods, ask for Extension bulletin NRAES-7, "Home Storage of Fruits and Vegetables." It is available for $1.50 from your county Cooperative Extension Service office at 348-2841.

Laboring For Maturity

Maturity. What is it? It's one of those words you can never get a handle on. It lends itself more to description than achievement; more to a lifestyle than an attainment.

Maturity may be defined more as a pilgrimage than an arrival; more a process than a possession.

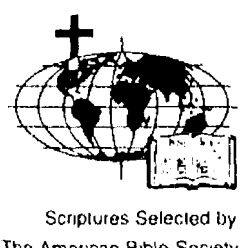

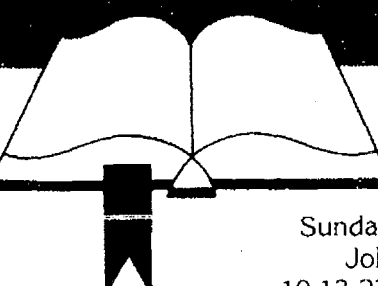

The New Testament writer James properly describes maturity as "unswerving constancy" which he says leads to being "perfect, complete, lacking in nothing." (1:3,4)

That sounds not only foreboding, but impossible. Can a person ever be that? Experience that? No, not totally.

Maturity is knowing no one can ever be fully mature; yet, maturity is not stymied by that reality, but rather is stimulated to keep striving for it.

This was the Apostle Paul's commitment: "I count not myself to have attained . . . but I press on to the mark of the prize of the high calling. . . ." (Phil. 3:13)

State Plans To Repay Unemployment Debt

Warren M. Hoyt, Exec. Dir., MPA

Michigan will finish repaying its remaining $1.2 billion federal unemployment loan debt in 1989 according to its originally planned schedule, even though it could repay the debt at the end of this year. The payment will be delayed in order to maintain enough reserves in the system to prevent the need for further loans in case the economy goes through a downturn. Department of Labor officials said recently. The $1.2 billion is what remains of federal loans that peaked at $2.6 billion, Kay Penner, Labor director of public information said. But those loans remaining are non-interest bearing loans, she said, while the state already repaid $1.1 billion in interest-bearing loans.

Although $300 million in interest-free loans have already been paid and "it is anticipated the state will have the cash in hand to repay" the outstanding balance, Penner said it is more fiscally prudent to repay the loan according to the current schedule.

Von Logan of the Michigan Employment Security Commission said if the economy remains in approximately the same condition, with unemployment at approximately the same rate, the state would have an unemployment reserve fund of about $700 million in 1989 when the final loans are repaid.

The state instituted a new series of unemployment taxes in 1982 to repay a mounting unemployment debt.

In 1982 the federal government also changed its policy on making unemployment loans to states, ending interest-free loans and charging interest on loans.

According to a report issued by the Economic Alliance of Michigan, the April 1985 repayment of interest bearing loans was 18 months ahead of schedule.

The report also found that total unemployment taxes paid by employers from 1983 through 1986 would total $5.1 billion, $1.4 billion less than the originally anticipated $6.5 billion.

The report also said that jobless benefits paid for unemployed workers for the same three-year period would be $2.1 billion less than the anticipated $5 billion.

Logan also said unemployment benefits would be increased in January under provisions indexing benefits to the state's average weekly wage.

The current maximum benefit is $197 a week, and Logan said that will be at least $220 beginning in January.

The maximum unemployment payments will be 53 percent of the state's average weekly wage, and that percentage will be increased until 1989 when payments will be 58 percent, he said.

Logan added the $220 a week figure was based on 53 percent of the 1985 average weekly wage of $416.

The 1986 average weekly wage — which will not be determined until January — will probably be as much as 4 percent above the 1985 average, he said.

Nuclear Decommissioning Agreement Goes to P.S.C.

A proposal to establish $450 million in trust funds to decommission nuclear power plants is ready for Public Service Commission consideration with an agreement reached after year-long negotiations between the PSC staff, utilities and other parties.

If the PSC adopts the agreement, which would raise customer bills at four utilities by 5-30 cents per month, it would later have to apply the provisions specifically to each nuclear facility.

The surcharge on customers would raise about $12.5 million a year for Detroit Edison's Fermi II plant (in which Wolverine Electric Cooperative has a part interest), Consumers Power Company's Palisades and Big Rock plants and Indiana and Michigan's two-unit Cook facility.

The funds are to be deposited in trust accounts outside the utilities' normal operations, with expected earnings of about 8 percent annually.

The PSC in 1980 rejected a proposal from the utilities for $1 billion in internal accounts, and nothing further was done about the procedure until last year when federal changes permitted tax credits for payments to external funds.

The agreement calls for the surcharges to begin January 1, 1987 in preparation for decommissioning the first plant, probably Big Rock, no later than 2002. The plan assumes the costs for that plant, to decontaminate the radioactive equipment and restore the site, would be $50 million. Assumptions for the other plants are $100 million each.

Parade Highlights REDEX '86 Training for Michigan Guard

The annual pass-in-review held Thursday at Camp Grayling culminated REDEX '86. Over 8,000 Michigan Army National Guard troops formed on the parade field to honor those who died during the past year, to present awards, and to pass-in-review before the Adjutant General.

Although this is the 76th annual training conducted at Camp Grayling, REDEX '86 was the first time the troops went directly to the field.

The pass-in-review opened with a flyover of A7's from Phelps Collins Air National Guard Base in Alpena, and helicopters from Company B, 38th Aviation Battalion, Grand Ledge.

The military review was conducted by the Adjutant General of Michigan, Major General Vernon J. Andrews; Assistant Adjutant General of Michigan, Army, Brigadier General Jerome J. Mathieu and the Deputy STARC Commander, Brigadier General Stanley Wilk. The Commander of Troops for the Review was Colonel Robert G. Lundy, Chief of Staff. Also present for the parade were Brigadier General Glen F. Chapin, Assistant Deputy Commander, 38th Infantry Division, and Brigadier General Richard DeMara, Commander, 177th Military Police Brigade.

The 13 gun salute to the Adjutant General was provided by Battery C, 1st Battalion, 119th Field Artillery from Charlotte, under the command of Captain Donald B. Bullock, Jr.

Soldiers of the 107th Engineer Battalion were honored by the announcement of the granite and copper stone which is to be delivered to Normandy, France. France is dedicating a memorial to all soldiers who fought at Normandy Beach in the liberation of France during World War II.

The Brigadier General Earl R. Stewart Award is presented each year during the pass-in-review to the best all around enlisted person in the Michigan Army National Guard. It is the most desired and prestigious award for enlisted personnel. This year's award was presented to Sergeant Terrance Saunders, Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 107th Engineer Battalion.

The Michigan Army National Guard has been a strong supporter of the pursuit of higher education for its personnel. This year, in cooperation with the National Guard Retired Officers Association, a new award in the form of a scholarship was presented to Sergeant Deborah Totzkay, of the 207th Evacuation Hospital.

Sergeant First Class George T. Fillmore was presented the Michigan Army National Guard Life Saving Medal for personal bravery and courage above and beyond the call of duty for his actions during a fire in which he was able to save a person who was trapped inside a burning building. Fillmore is a member of the 1461st Transportation Company of Jackson.

The Superior Unit Award is not only a special recognition for the commander of the unit, but it also says that his personnel have gone that extra mile to make it the most outstanding unit in the Michigan Army National Guard. This year's award was won by Service Battery, 1st Battalion, 119th Field Artillery.

The Rasmus Hanson Award, named in honor of the man who donated the land for Camp Grayling in 1913, is awarded to the most outstanding Non-Commissioned Officer in the State. This year's award was presented to Staff Sergeant James F. Ingison of the 1070th Maintenance Company.

Lieutenant Colonel Clifford Owens, Chaplain of the Michigan National Guard, offered a prayer for the soldiers who died during the past year. The 126th Army Band played Taps as a salute to their departed comrades.
